DON'T FORGET

Don't forget to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for that back-ache.

Don't forget that over half a million women have been cured of women's ailments by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Don't forget that "Favorite Prescription" cures diseases of women in their advanced and chronic forms, cures often when all else has failed.

Don't forget that you can consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. Tell your story frankly. All correspondence is private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget to write to Dr. Pierce to-day, if you are sick from diseases which afflict women.

"I wrote for advice February 4, 1896," writes Mrs. Lena Halstead, of Claremore, Cherokee Nat., Ind. "I was racking with pain from the back of my head down to my heels. Had hemorrhage for weeks at a time, and was unable to sit for ten minutes at a time. You answered my letter, advised me to use your valuable medicine, viz.: Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and Pleasant Pellets, also gave advice about injections, baths and diet. To my surprise, in four months from the time I began your treatment I was a well woman and have not had the back-ache since, and now I put in sixteen hours a day hard work."

Paper-bound edition of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address as above.

RAT CAUSES A FIRE SCARE.

A big rat ran across a woman's feet in the first balcony in the Thalia Theatre on the Bowes on Saturday night in the middle of the performance of "Der Yiddisher Saphir," and she promptly shrieked "Fire!" For about ten minutes after that there was plenty of excitement in the theatre, and but for the timely counsel of Mme. Bertha Karlish, the leading woman, the alarm might have resulted seriously. As it was, two women fainted, another lost her "sheitel" or wig, and a candy seller was relieved of most of his wares.

It was in the second act of the play. The woman's cry was immediately taken up, and part of the audience made a dash for safety. Manager Kessler happened to be in the rear of the orchestra watching the performance, and he promptly ordered the ushers to guard the exits, surmising from previous experience that the alarm was a false one. The audience clamored valiantly around the ushers.

"Let me out!" shrieked a long-bearded man, shaking his fist savagely at one of the ushers. "I must go to my mine home and make early putonboles at! Oh, my wife and children. Becky your husband's wife kill dead!"

"Go back, go back!" shouted Manager Kessler. "There's nothing to matter, there's no fire!"

"Vat? I smell der burning in the mine already!" cried the man. "Mister Kessler, ach Gott, led me escape!"

He finally managed to get out and into the street, followed by several other excited men and women. The candy vendor who had run all the way down from the gallery, was asking Kessler what the trouble was and was knocked down. His basket was overturned and the contents were sent flying. Before he had a chance to recover his wares self-possessed small boys in the audience had filled their pockets.

In the body of the theatre women and children shrieked and the din was distressing. Mme. Karlish was going through one of her most trying scenes when the alarm was raised. The stage was partly darkened and the orchestra was playing slow music. The lights were immediately turned up, however, and the band struck up a lively tune. This had the effect of quieting the audience somewhat and Mme. Karlish addressed to the footlights and said in Yiddish:

"Keep your seats, ladies and gentlemen. There's no fire. Some foolish person who ought to know better got excited and raised the cry. If there is any fire it is safe to say that I would not be standing here."

Two firemen appeared on the stage with her and assured everybody that there was no fire or danger and the audience settled down again. The lights were turned low and the scene was resumed.—[New York Sun.]

Big Fine For Ship Builders.—A penalty of over $300,000 will probably be exacted of the Newport News Company for failure to complete the battleship Missouri on contract time. This vessel is nearly two years behind under the present percentage of completion, and the firm may have to pay possibly as high as $375,000. At the present rate of progress the Missouri will not be finished until August, 1903, two years after the time when she is due. The contract was dated October 11, 1898, and stipulates a penalty of $300 per day during the first six months after August 30 next, and $600 per day after February 28, 1902.

A Very Remarkable Remedy.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store as overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh of the nose as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Foote, Pastor Central Presbyterian Church, Helena, Mont.

AFTER USING Ely's Cream Balm six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh.—Joseph Stewart, Grand Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you Eat

A powerful engine can't be run with a weak boiler; and you can't expect to keep up the wear and strain of an active life with a weak stomach. Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, so that you can eat all the good food you want, without any distress after eating.

"After forty years of suffering from indigestion, a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me."—Amel Bell, Fredonia, Pa.
